The One account Personal Banking Service

The One account isn't just about saving money. It's about a great banking service too - one that's personal to you.

This leaflet gives you details about our services and what we'll charge you for. We won't charge you a penny for most things you'll want to do on a day-to-day basis, but there are charges for some transactions - such as bankers drafts or CHAPS payments. When we do need to charge you for something, we'll normally add the fee to your account. For increases in facility a valuation may be required for which there will be a charge.

We won't charge you a penny for these services
